

ICN Congress

Nursing Around the World

2-4 November 2021

The virtual meeting place of the world's nurses

ICN welcomes students to our ICN 2021 Congress!

Students at all education levels are welcome

Why should students attend?

- Low registration fees!
Until 30 September students will get the incredibly low rate of 100 euros and we offer one free registration for every group of 20 participants! If you also register for the Student Assembly (see below), you can get a further discount on Congress registration! Register here.
- Full access to sessions for six months!
Once you register, you will receive full access to all official Congress sessions, e-posters, and partner and industry symposia. You will have full access to this content for six months after Congress is over.
- Networking opportunities!
Meet up with other nursing students from all over the world on our online platforms, chats and other networking areas.
- Learn about nursing across the world!
Explore different health systems around the world and learn about important health topics.
- Listen to top nursing and health experts, and global celebrities!
The ICN Congress has some incredible speakers from all over the world, such as Ban ki-moon, former UN General Secretary and Helen Clark, former Prime Minister of New Zealand. Some world-renowned celebrities will be announced soon as well!
- Earn Continuing Education Credits!
You can earn International Continuing Nursing Education Credits (ICNECs) by attending ICN 2021 – a great way to boost your cv and advance your career!

ICN Student Assembly 2021: Nursing Students Around the World

We also invite students to join the ICN Student Assembly which will be held on 23 October 2021. This interactive meeting will bring together students from all around the world to discuss key priorities for nursing students, early career nurses and youth; explore how to support and enhance the student and youth voice and influence and in the development of future leaders in policy and practice; and network and share experiences and information.
